Held for Murder.

Coroner Leigh and a jury this afternoon held an inquest over the body of William Wood, colored, who died of a stab wound through the lower part of the neck yesterday afternoon, and held Virgie Ford, eighteen years old, responsible for the killing, which occurred at the house of Ollie Graves, in Weber's Alley. It was there that the trio had their fatal difficulty, and the story of the girl after her arrest, denying that she inflicted the stab wound, was discredited by the evidence before the jury. It was testified by the woman, Ollie Graves, that Virgie Ford and not William Wood had the knife—a white-handled pocketknife—and it was established that the trio had had trouble and that she brought on the trouble, which ended fatally Wood died of hemorrhage from a severed artery, expiring before a doctor could be summoned. It was an hour or more after Wood's death before the police were notified.

Skeletons Uncarthed.

During the progress of ditch-digging on Filmore Street by city workmen in the past few days the bones of several skeletons were uncarthed. This is a comparatively new section of the city, which has recently been greatly improved. It is supposed that the remains are those of soldiers or other persons buried during the war, or that an ancient cemetery once existed there. The bones were reburied.

THE JEFFERSON

The regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held to-morrow might. The business will be confined mainly to concurrence in matters passed upon by the Colincil. In these will be lined passed upon by the Colincil. In these will be included permission for the Potersburg Telephone Company to lay underground conduits for its wires on certain Streets, and permission granted Frances Bland Chapter, Daughters American Revolution, to place a monument to the British General Phillips, in established permanence.

For instance, in the case of R. M. Wood, Editor of the Wine and Spirit Review, of San Francisco, Cal.; It was twelve years ago that "the most noted analysist in San Francisco" established the genunesess of the case. The editor's physicans told him that medicine would not avail him and advised him to go to Santa Barbara. He dropped from 25 to less than 150 pounds in a short while. On his return he was put on Fulton's Renal Compound, and not only made a recovery, but the reality and permanence of it may be judged from the fact that he is well at this writing, January, 1913.
